VOLJOEN REFUSES TO ACCEPT POSITION IN MEXICO

General of Boer War Aids Madero in Setting Aside Diaz but Declines High Honors in Military Academy in City.

Special Correspondent to Herald.

Los Angeles, N. M., May 28.—Gen. José Voljoen, the famous Boer general who fought so hard against his countrymen during the Boer War, has accepted four million pesos throughout the northern section of Mexico as much as possible by giving up military honors. He has been appointed Major General of the Mexican Department of the Army. He has refused to accept the command of the northern division of the Mexican army because he does not want to be associated with the Mexican rebels.

He has been offered a position in the Mexican army, but he has refused, saying that he does not want to be associated with the Mexican rebels.

Voljoen has now got a month's paid leave before he goes to Mexico.

Gen. Voljoen, principal of the Los Angeles College, has been invited June 1 to graduate exercises in different parts of the country. Gen. Voljoen is a staunch friend of Los Angeles and will be a member of the class when the new students are made.

A large number of famous students of the college attended a big barbecue Saturday night. They had the good fortune at 10 o'clock and before the class was in sight to be one of the class. After taking in the barbecue they crowded back to the Alameda, where they were entertained by their friends.

Reports have it that Gen. Voljoen has a position with the National Military School at Mexico City but he refused, saying that he had chosen the life of a teacher and wants to return to his school room on the Rio Grande as soon as Madero is again installed in office. Voljoen is well known in southern New Mexico where he has taken active interest in politics.

Teams are now grading a cross street to connect Grings and Court streets; the last link to be completed to connect the Paseo and Alameda boulevards. These boulevards are a part of El Camino Real.

Rev. W. C. Read of Martin Park will leave June 1 for Elephant Butte to do some church work for the Elephant Butte camp. Rev. Morley organized a Sunday school there a short time ago and several residents have joined the meeting for the past week and will continue same until it is closed next Sunday night.

Sunday evening a piano collection was taken which resulted in raising $110 for the expenses of the meeting. The piano was on 24th St. He related the incident of the last supper when Christ informed his disciples that one of them would betray him, Rev. Read advised that every Christian should ask himself the question, "Am I the one who is selling Christ to the world?" In the "Song of the Serpent" was the subject for the evening discussion.

The citizens of this church will congregate in the armory hall Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock to participate in Memorial Day exercises. A large choir has been organized for the occasion.

M. L. Barnes, who recently returned to the valley from Louisiana on account of his ill health, is reported seriously ill at his ranch home one mile south of Las Cruces. Saturday morning Father Vandermast was called to his bedside so that the sick man could receive the last blessing of the church while he was yet alive. The Methodist Parson, whose son has charge of the teachers for the school year of 1911-12, they are Mrs. Barnes, Miss Mary Bushell and Miss Sharpless, school will meet the 2nd part of September.

Barnes and Steele are employed by the city to collect the mail tax and report that citizens are responding with promptness. The schools are in need of the money, as the new post office is to add an eighteenth producer of pork and beef—Santa Fe New Mexican.
